FAMILY CAMP 2025

JULY 19-26

SUMMITGROVECAMP.ORG/FAMILY-CAMP

OUR 2025 THEME

SUMMER SOUL MINING

A Time Together. To Dig Deeper Into The Scriptures
To Discover God's Fuel For Our Souls!

EVENING SERVICE

Rev. Rudy Sheptock has served for 24 years as Senior Pastor of The Lighthouse Church in Cape May County before answering a new call to lead Shamokin Alliance Church in Pennsylvania. A devoted husband, father, and "Pop-Pop" to ten grandchildren, Rudy's contagious enthusiasm extends beyond the pulpit to mentoring, speaking, and hosting his own Oldies radio show. His theme for our camp is "Summer Time Soul Mining".

MORNING BIBLE HOUR

We'll spend five mornings exploring what the Bible has to say about worship - but we won't necessarily be talking about music. We'll study what worship looks like in Heaven, discover what a temple is, learn about the Tabernacle of David, and God's mission to establish a diverse church of worshipers from every nation. We'll be in Genesis, 1-2 Chronicles, Amos, Acts, Revelation, and more!

James Rudd - Lead Pastor at True Vine Church Community. Studied Bible and Pastoral Ministry at Nyack College. He studied Master's of Arts (M.A.) in Biblical Studies at Alliance Theological Seminary and lives in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He is married to Kendra Rudd.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Kristen Mitchell was born and raised in Carlisle, PA. She has a Bachelor's in Business Administration from Shippensburg University. Kristen and her husband, Rob, have 3 children: Evey, Ava and Robbie. She directs the activities of York Alliance children ages 0-11. She loves tacos, naps, dogs and hiking.

Kaylee Getz attends the Mount Union Alliance and is one of their youth leaders. She has been attending Summit Grove Family Camp since she was nine! She graduated from Messiah University with a teaching degree and recently became a 7th grade STEM teacher. Some things that make her smile are summer, iced coffee, hiking, and her dog, Honey.

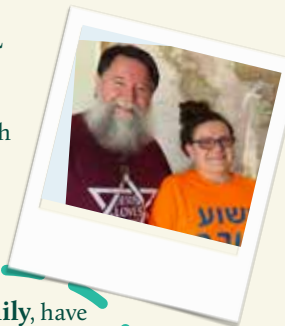

INTERNATIONAL WORKERS
